

Antonio Araujo

(712)-899-2572

aa0016@morningside.edu

PROFILE: Looking for an internship that utilizes my skills and experiences in audit and tax, where I can utilize my strong work ethic and always being motivated to improve in every aspect to exceed expectations.

- Goal-oriented, with a competitive personality.
- Experience in two hands-on tax accounting experiences, with three seasons of tax experience.
- Completed several advanced accounting courses, including intermediate, tax accounting, and auditing.
- Passionate about pursuing a CPA certification.

EDUCATION:

Morningside University, Sioux City, IA

Expected: December 2026

Bachelor of Science: Public accounting (150 Credit Hours); GPA 3.69/4.0

RELATED EXPERIENCE:

Tax Accounting Intern (Seasonal)

Henjes Conner & Williams PC, Sioux City, IA

January 2025 – Present

- Utilized software such as CCH Axcess.
- Implemented a personal goal to complete 100 tax returns, and achieved 103.
- Processed both individual and business returns
- Invited to extend my internship through the summer and fall and return in the spring.

Volunteer in Tax Assistance (VITA)

Center for Siouxland, Sioux City, IA

Spring 2024

- Trained in simple tax returns, preparing taxes for low-income clients using TaxSlayer.
- Communicated effectively with clients, even those who did not speak English.

Shipping

Sioux City Tarps, Sioux City, IA

June 2017-December 2024

- Started by volunteering with counting screws and similar tasks, and was recognized for a strong work ethic and invited to work part-time.
- Primarily worked at managing inventory and deciding which orders to ship first to streamline operations and increase customer satisfaction.
- Interacted with clients daily and gained experience in collaboration, problem-solving and working in a professional work environment.

ACTIVITIES:

- Morningside Men's Soccer
- Morningside Accounting Club
- Business Honor Student